NEWS RELEASE

Keynoters, Sessions Announced for NAVCP 2018 Vision Health Summit

Registration and Room Discounts End Soon

Washington, D.C., March 27, 2018 – The National Association of Vision Care Plans (NAVCP) announced today that Futurist, Technology CEO, Award-Winning Inventor, Number One Bestselling Author Nicholas Webb and U.S. Congressman Lloyd Doggett (TX-35th) (Invited) will keynote its 2018 Vision Health Summit April 22-24 at the Driskill Hotel in Austin, TX.

The 2018 summit will bring together managed vision care professionals to engage in two-way discussion with industry thought leaders and federal and state healthcare public policymakers. Those discussions will center on future business and treatment trends, innovative approaches for promoting access and vision health for all Americans and simplifying healthcare administration. The event is open to both NAVCP members and industry professionals.

“NAVCP has put together a conference program designed to engage attendees in developing strategies to properly position affordable, quality vision care as essential healthcare made possible by managed vision care plans,” said Julian Roberts, NAVCP executive director. “We expect this to be our most interactive summit yet.”

According to the association, registrations and room reservations must be made within the next few days to qualify for discount prices. Room reservations must be made by no later than April 5 to secure the preferred conference rates (based on availability). Summit registration discounts end on April 6. The 2018 NAVCP Vision Health Summit sessions are:

Session 1: Remote Eyewear Prescribing: The Ultimate Industry Game Changer?

Session 2: Are Consumer Trends Changing American’s Thinking About Their Vision Health?

Session 3: Why Isn’t Vision Care a Part of All Employer Health Insurance Plans?

Session 4: Public Policy Fixes – Build them and the Change Will Come?

Session 5: Strategy Capture and Debate

This moderated session will engage attendees to identify and rank the top-three strategies/solutions from the four sessions.
